1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR

1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mark Pratt on November 2, 2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS

Claim 16, line 2, the phrase --having computer executable instructions-- is inserted after

"computer program".

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1, 14, 15, 16, and 17 are allowable over the prior art of record since the cited references taken alone or in combination fails to particularly disclose a storage unite operable to store therein a common predetermined value that is common to the communication device and the other communication device and a communication unit operable to conduct content transmission/reception with the other communication device only when said judging unit has judged that the acquired time-to-live is less than or equal to the common predetermined value stored in the storage unit, and to not conduct content transmission/reception with the other communication device when said judging unit has judged that the acquired time-to-live is not less than or equal to the common predetermined value stored in the storage unit. Therefore, the prior art of record fails to disclose or render obvious the above underlined limitation as
